POLICE MAKE ARREST IN ALLIED GARDENS FATAL SHOOTING

On Saturday, January 17, 2015, at about 10:00 p.m., San Diego Police Officers responded to a radio call of gunshots fired in the 6400 block of Clara Lee Avenue. Officers found 42-year-old Cedric O'Neal Paris of San Diego had sustained gunshot wound(s) to his upper torso. Medical intervention was unsuccessful and the victim was pronounced deceased at the scene.

A few minutes after the shooting, a San Diego Police Officer conducted a vehicle stop in the area of Scripps Poway Parkway on a SUV that matched the suspect vehicle description. Driving the vehicle was the victim's brother, 43-year-old Jason Douglas Paris of San Bernardino County. Jason Paris was subsequently charged with one count of murder and booked into County Jail. His arraignment is scheduled for January 22, 2015.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at 619-531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at 888-580-8477.
